Treasure Hunt Marketing Report

“The #1 Reason Most Marketers Fail Is Because They’re Listening to People Who’ve Never Succeeded!”

From: Nick Marks “Internet Marketer Of The Year”

Re: Confidential Treasure Hunt Marketing Document

Dear Prospective Entrepreneur,

A lot of talk has been circulating recently about the disdain everyone has for those who are touting ‘net marketing products on how to succeed, and then begging for advice on how to make money in the same breath!

The contradiction is about to end...

You are going to receive a once in a lifetime chance to walk in the footsteps of a highly successful online entrepreneur who strongly believes in the fact that sharing secrets helps create a more profitable marketplace for everyone and that isolationism and secrecy breeds contempt for our industry as a whole.

How many times have you landed on a sales page where the marketer was promoting a product, complete with screen shots of his “earnings” and then you find out someone just got crafty with his PhotoShop tools – that the earnings were manipulated and the “success” that person had was nothing more than smoke and mirrors?

It’s unfortunately more common than not, but I have a way to prove my earnings and success that have nothing to do with phony images and creative thinking.

Now my success is not the only one that’s real – there are TONS of true-life success stories, but how many Internet millionaires are willing to share their secrets with you?

The truth of the matter is...

Internet Marketing Does Have Unlimited Income Potential, If You Know How to Turn Profits in the Shortest Amount of Time, Skipping the Disasters Many Marketers Face That Result in Them Giving Up!

Want to know a dirty little secret?

The reason marketers don’t want you to really learn how they do it is because when you’re missing that single piece of the puzzle, you have to keep filling up their pockets with more cash.

They know you’re desperate for answers, and they keep making empty promises and you keep biting.

I’m about to piss a lot of people off on December 9th, and I’m bracing myself for the onslaught of emails that brand me a traitor!

But I couldn’t care less!

Let’s face it, if these guys keep force-feeding you a bunch of bull, you’ll eventually wake up and get wise and stop trusting (or buying from) ANY marketer – even if their claims are TRUE, like mine!

I refuse to let them poison my market, and I consider what I’m about to reveal to the public protecting my investment. Know what they’re going to say?

Nothing!* You Watch - Marketer After Marketer Will Copycat My Product and Flounder Because They Can’t Provide Solid Proof Like I Can!

You don’t have to be a rocket scientist to succeed in the online market. You don’t need a degree or a lot of start-up funds. All you need is good advice and determination.

I've been succeeding at Internet marketing as my sole source of income for years. I'm actually the Internet Marketer Of The Year – Plus I have had the #1 product selling on ClickBank for years!

Below is a screenshot of one of my product being Listed #1 on Clickbank!

Here's a picture of Russell Brunson presenting me with the Internet Marketer Of The Year Award!

My Enterprise has earned multi-millions of dollars, and the profits continue streaming in each morning, noon, and night – with no signs of slowing down. To put it blunt – I know my stuff.

Did I ever make mistakes on my road to ultimate success?

You bet! Every good marketer will admit they weren't always a genius. There were times I had to go back to square one and rethink my strategy, but as I did, I kept notes because I didn't want to repeat my mistakes in the future.

Listen, this confidential document isn't going to reveal every secret that I have to share, but I'm going to let you take a sneak peek into my world of millions and see how a real pro makes his money.

What can you do with this stealth creation?

I strongly urge you to print it out and study it. Take notes on it and stash it away in your records. If you're not willing to put in the effort to learn, then you're not serious about your success.

Some of the stuff you're going to learn was directly responsible for me being the Internet Marketer Of The Year, and my climb to the top of ClickBank - I'm challenging you right now – do you have what it takes to knock me off the top of the heap?

Internet marketing isn't just about creating a product and slapping it up on a web page. Oh, they'd have you believe it's that easy because then you fail and they sell to you again.

It's a wash, rinse, and repeat sinkhole that pays off for them but cripples your own efforts – not to mention your confidence.

Enough about what to avoid, let's take a look at what the foundation of my success is built on.

Are You Tired of Digging for an Internet Marketing Goldmine Only to Come Up with a Handful of Dirt?

Once You Have an “X Marks the Spot” Map, You Can Follow My Trail to Unearth the Treasure Chest of Profits That Awaits You as a Payoff for Your Determination!

Know what 99.9% of Internet marketers are doing wrong?

They're trying to do too many things at once.

If you don't allow at least one of your profit ventures to become fully monetized, then you're planning to fail!

Forget all the crap you hear about how Internet marketing is an overnight millionaire turnkey business opportunity. I'm all about the fastest road to success, but if you're naive enough to believe there's no work involved, then 'net marketing isn't for you.

As you build your own online empire, like I did with Forex Enterprise, you want to work on two major concepts:

1. Loyalty

2. Branding

Without customer loyalty, you'll only have a solo sale from every single customer – not to mention endless refund requests because those people went and found someone else who does it better than you.

As for branding, you're one site out of a billion. What makes you think visitors will remember your URL above all others?

Without branding, you can't build an empire.

You know what sets gurus apart from John or Jane Doe in the Marketing world? Branding. A guru has staked the claim to his niche, which John Doe feels more comfortable staying behind the scenes playing peek-a-boo with his target audience.

We're not in pre-school anymore! Since you can't greet your customers face-to-face, you'd better have a place for instilling trust in your product line. And one of the best ways to do that is through recognition.

I'm Going to Help You Find Your Starting Point

Where do I begin?

That's the most common question I'm asked whenever someone comes to me for advice on how to make money on the 'net.

If you're feeling overwhelmed, you're not alone. They did it to you on purpose. Information overload means you have to buy everything to find the nuggets of value and play puzzle master for a year before you finally figure it all out.

I don't care where you want to start, my concept is to show you where you should start. I'm all about making money, and while you might feel an AdSense site is your best bet, you may find through my teachings that affiliate marketing is where your money lies.

If you plan on mimicking my bank account, which is over 7 figures at any given time, then you need to follow my route and take a shortcut to success.

I know for a fact that many of you reading this are bullheaded and stubborn and aren't going to listen to me. You have that right.

But then don't come crying to me when you're still stuck spinning your wheels, wondering why the money's not streaming in like I said it would.

It's not about working hard. It's about working smart. My Treasure Hunt Marketing plan was developed on this concept.

I spent five years developing this plan of attack – it's not something I whipped up in a couple of weeks just to cash in on the Forex Enterprise name.

"Treasure Hunt Marketing" means you're going to find your treasure through marketing maneuvers that I deem worthy of your investment of time

There's a lot of ineffective marketing happening on a day-to-day basis – some of it being practiced by some gurus who are starting to slip up, and I'm not naming names here – but watch closely because if they don't turn their efforts around, you're about to see some falling stars on the horizon!

How do you know which advice to follow?

Demand That Someone Prove Their Success Before You Silently Follow Along Like a Sheep Being Led to Slaughter!

Are you tired of the glossed over tactics marketers share, like:

- “Have a Success Mindset”
- “Set Goals”
- “Test and Tweak Your Systems”

Sounds a bit like everyone sitting around a nice warm fire singing Koombahya, doesn't it? What about the details? Do they ever give you the details of how to test and tweak your system?

I'm talking the nitty gritty, like what software they use, how often (to the day) that they test their copy, or an exact explanation of how they break their own goals down.

No, you won't find that sort of stuff disclosed because what happens? You can copy their system like a cookie cutter and squeeze them out of their niche.

I thought about the concept of Treasure Hunt Marketing in two ways.

First, there are so many different ways to make money with Internet Marketing, that it is like finding a lost treasure – one that's buried all over the 'net. You just need some tools to help you sift through the garbage and find the diamond niche that you'll make yours.

But I also thought about it another way. Pirates are brutal rebels. They seize other people's goods without intimidation and they sail from place to place, not worrying about what rightfully belong to another person.

If You Don't Have a Little Bit of Pirate in You, Then You'll Get Squashed by the Competition Before You Get Going!

Do you know how many times I've seen emails from people who were worried because so-and-son (some self-proclaimed “guru”) claimed they owned a particular niche?

Who wants to go up against someone like Jimmy Brown or John Reese?

You do!

Forget about who owns what in what niche.

If you don't have a pirate mindset, where you're hell-bent on stealing a niche right out from under someone else, then pack your bags and go back to the 9-5 grind.

Now I don't endorse dirty tactics that ruin anyone's reputation or causes damage to another marketer. What I'm talking about it having the guts to do what you want to do – better than anyone else does it!

Listen up, because I have a very important announcement that has the potential to change your life forever:

On December 9th, 2008 I'm Going to Build a Powerhouse Crew of Expert Marketers Who I Feel Have the Potential to Achieve Millionaire Status in the Shortest Amount of Time!

Now do you see why my competitors are going to be outraged?

It's absolutely unheard of for someone of my stature to hand over an exact replica of their business strategy and encourage them to copy them exactly.

Why am I doing this? Have I lost my marbles?

My step-by-step Treasure Hunt Marketing plan is intended to put a screeching halt to all the BS happening in the Internet Marketing world right now.

I told you, I'm protecting my market and if these weasels keep diminishing consumers' trust in online sellers, then they're going to cause my business to go under! I won't stand for it, so on December 20th, 2006, you'll get immediate access to...

I've spent five years amassing this information and it's 100% no-fluff or filler prime cut marketing at its best.

If you wanted to learn about real estate investment, who would you listen to – Donald Trump?

What about learning how to invest in stocks – Warren Buffet?

When it comes to learning how to profit as an Internet marketer, then Nick Marks is the person you want to listen to. Why? Because I'm successful in my field and I'm willing to share what I've learned with you – no holds barred.

This Isn't a Snapshot of My Websites or a Brief Introduction to the Way I Earn Money...

This is a complete biopsy of my systems – all of them – from start to finish.

Want to know why I give freebies out to my list? Well it's not because I'm Mr. Nice Guy, and I'll come clean in Treasure Hunt Marketing.

Want to know the secrets I use to get dirt-cheap ghostwriters to clamor for my projects? I'll tell you – and I'll even give you a script to use so that you'll have the same results.

How about if I promise to tell you why I almost NEVER advertise my sales copy on the 'net? Sounds insane, doesn't it?

But there's a method to my madness!

And this "method" earns me MILLIONS each and every year!

Don't Wait Until Other Newbie 'Net Marketers Get Ahold of My System and Start Building Relationships with YOUR Target Audience!

You want loyalty to start and end with you, NOT your competition!

There are so many secrets I'm spilling in Treasure Hunt Marketing that you're going to be shocked. (My competitors are going to be appalled).
